The Mark C. Clayton-Kappa Alpha Psi Endowed Scholarship at SSU reached its projected goal of $20,000 on July 30, 2008 when Dr. Earl G. Yarbrough, president of SSU, accepted a check from representatives of the Savannah alumni chapter, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity for $2,000. The scholarship was established in 2004 with an initial endowment of $10,000. According to records from the university's Office of Advancement, Mr. Mario Gray, senior, was the recipient of the scholarship for the school year 2007-08.

ty and the world. Their loyal following grows larger with each performance, and they continue to leave an indelible mark on each person that experiences the wonder of Five Men On a Stool. This Atlanta based phenomenon is sweeping the southeast with its captivating yet indescribable performance. Each of the five men possesses talents unique to creating the experience that only the eyewitness can fully appreciate.

Performances for the group range from their own spectacular productions to events such as fundraising concerts for The National Council of Negro Women, Haitian Empowerment for Life Project in Augusta and Macon, Morehouse School of Medicine Employee Scholarship Fund, as well as smaller, more intimate occasions such as corporate events and birthday celebrations. Whatever the event, the group always gives a performance that receives rave reviews from all that have the pleasure of them.

The Savannah Sankofa Male Chorale "Sponsor-A-Youth" Campaign

The Savannah Sankofa Male Chorale is a new singing group to our city. The main focus of the chorale is to identify musically talented at-risk males between the ages of 13-18. The organization's commitment is to provide character education which instills Christian and moral values; stresses discipline and hard work; helps participants in making good choices; develops good interpersonal skills and self-esteem; and empowers young men to be productive citizens in our society, "using music as the motivator."

The talented young men, who were recently featured by WTOG as Top Teens of the Week, have been asked to perform on the Bobby Jones Gospel Show in Nashville, Tennessee in September. The organization is seeking support from all our friends in the community!

Please support us by sponsoring a young man to be featured as "New Talent" on the Bobby Jones Gospel Show. The taping for the young men will be September 12-14, 2008.

For more information, please contact Mrs. Sadie W. Perkins, Savannah Sankofa Male Chorale Advisory Board Chairman at (912) 507-0569; or call the Sankofa Hotline at (912) 541-5312.
