

CHURCH NEWS AND OTHER FEATURES

First Saint Peters Baptist Installs Pastor-Elect

Rev. and Mrs. Keynard Campbell

The members of the First Saint Peters Baptist Church are proud and equally blessed to announce the installation of their Pastor-elect, Rev. Keynard Campbell. The installation ceremony will take place on Sunday, August 31, 2008, at 6:00 p.m. The Reverend Marvin Lloyd, Pastor of Little Bryan Baptist Church, will officiate.

Reverend Campbell is the son of Deacon and Mrs. Glynnard Campbell. He is a graduate of Savannah High School, and Fort Valley State University, as well as a veteran of the U.S. Army. He is currently employed by the Chatham County Department of Family and Children Services. He is a devoted husband and the father of three children. Prior to being selected by Saint Peters, he has been a life-long member of Little Bryan Baptist Church where he has served in a variety of capacities.

The members of Saint Peters consider it a blessing from God to have been provided with such a spiritually sound and committed leader and hope that you can join them for this consecrated and blessed event.

Celebrating 3 Years of Commitment and Excellence!

Come with Expectancy to Calvary Missionary Baptist Church, located off Hwy 17 South on Danielsiding Loop Road, Richmond Hill, Ga. for the 3rd Pastoral Celebration of Reverend Stanford L. Anderson, I, and the First Family.

A native of Ocilla, Ga, Pastor Anderson has been a servant of the Lord since the young age of seven years old. He is an energetic, anointed, spirit-led visionary, leader, pastor, teacher and humble servant to his congregation and community.

The Calvary Church Family invites you to fellowship with us beginning,

Rev. Stanford L. Anderson

Wednesday, September 3rd, 7 pm, Friendship Missionary Baptist Church Brunswick, Ga., Pastor Christopher Wilson. Sunday, September 7th, 4 pm, St. John Baptist Church, Savannah, Ga., Pastor George P. Lee, III.

Wednesday, September 10th, 7 pm, Mount Sinai

Baptist Church, Savannah, Ga., Pastor Shannon Smith. Join us for the ROYAL GALA, saluting our Pastor & First Family, Saturday, September 13th, 5 pm, Hazel Carter Senior Citizen Ctr., Hinesville, Ga., Minister Verdell Jones, speaker.

Wednesday, September 17th, 7 pm, Full Gospel Tabernacle COGIC, Hinesville, Ga., Pastor Antoine Shaw. Thursday, September 18th, 7 pm, Power Deliverance Church, Hinesville, Ga., Bishop Raymond Napper.

Services will culminate on Sunday, September 21st, 11am with Dr. L. Perry McNeal and the Jerusalem Baptist Church, Groveland, Ga.

Experience Calvary, Where Great Things are Happening.

Savannah Branch NAACP to hold Commemorative Memorial Service

The Savannah Branch NAACP will hold a 45th Anniversary commemorative memorial service dedicated to the four young girls martyred in the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church bombing in Birmingham, Alabama. It was a racially motivated terrorist act that took place on Sunday morning September 15, 1963. The memorial service will be held at St. Philip Monumental A.M.E. Church, 1112 Jefferson Street & West Park Avenue, 4:00 p.m.

Rev. George A. Moore, Jr. pastor, will deliver the memorial address. The purpose of this commemorative service is to express to the citizens of Savannah the urgency of exercising their right to vote, which was an important part of the Civil Rights Movement and the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Please show your support and respect for the work and efforts of the NAACP in your community and the four young martyrs by attending this service.

The Women of 1st Congregational Church Celebrates Women's Day

The Women of 1st Congregational Church, United Church of Christ are celebrating Women's Day on September 14th at 11:00 am.

Guest Speaker will be the "First Lady" of Savannah State College, Mrs. Patricia Yarbrough. Savannah State Choir will also be attending.

The event is open to the Community.

MEMORIAL

The joy of the Lord was "her" strength.
Nehemiah 8:10

Mrs. Mable S. Bryan

The family of Mrs. Mable S. Bryan acknowledges with humble appreciation the many expressions of support received.

We thank you for the prayers, calls, cards, flowers, food, stamps, and contributions to the family and church in memory of our loved one. May God Bless You! Continue to pray for our strength.

Be Safe, Drive Direct to Coastal Insurance

COASTAL INSURANCE AGENCIES

6811 Forest Park, Dr. Ste 204
Savannah, GA 31406
Phone (912) 692-1407

The Lowest Rates in Town!

call Today & Save !!!

Fred Brown, Agent Beshon Cherry Gibbs, Office Manager

Low Rates/Low Down Payments
Auto, Home, SR22A, SR22, Motorcycle, Commercial, Bonds

Gospel Music...

Continued from page 5

zation is to give back to our community by helping a young lady or young man to further their education.

We look forward in seeing you at the Celebration.

Pastor Nathaniel Small, Sr. President Brother Nathaniel Johnson, Vice President

Wilmington Missionary Baptist holds Appreciation Program

Wilmington Missionary Baptist Church, 3321 Skidaway Road and 52nd Street, will hold its Deacon and Deaconess Appreciation Program

beginning at 5:00 pm,

September 7, 2008, at the church. Bishop Robert Baker will present the Good News for this occasion.

Please come out 10 unite in the recognition of our watchful guardians.

Shiloh Missionary Baptist holds Annual Back to School Program

Pastor N. N. Boles, and the officers and members of Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church, 125 Canebrake Road, Savannah, would like to invite you, the public to join them in their "Back to School Celebration Program," on Sunday, August 31, 2008 at 11AM. Our theme is: "Education started in the Bible". Our speaker for the service will be Shiloh's Youth Pastor, Waverlyne M. McGowan.

We are looking forward to fellowshiping with you as we pray, praise, and prepare our youth to return back to school. Refreshments and school supplies will be given out after the service.

Please call the church for more information. Sister Delores Blige is the contact person at 912-927-0369.

First Jerusalem Missionary holds "Seasonal Tea"

First Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church, 219 E. 45th Street, would like to invite ALL out to a "Seasonal Tea" on Sunday, August 31, at 4PM. This is a social call which will include fellowship and prayer.

This event is sponsored by the Missionary Society. And again, all are invited to attend.

Thankful Missionary holds "Come As You Are Day"

Thankful Missionary Baptist Church, 820 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. Savannah, invites you to its "Come As You Are Day" Sunday September 7, 11 :00 a.m.

This is our Annual labor Day Celebration when the members come to church dressed in their work attire, or if retired, they dress as they formerly dressed when going to work. It is during this service that we celebrate God for giving us the strength, knowledge and the job itself. This is also our dress down Sunday for everybody. Many of the members share a sacrificial offering of one day's wages as a part of this celebration. Deacon J. A. Dandy and Minister Antoinette Gordon are our chairs for this day.

Visit us on the web at www.thankfulbaptistsavannah.org.

Pastor F. A. Fearbry, Reporting 912 - 234-4810.

Dan Vaden Chevrolet

Ask About Our GM MILITARY DISCOUNT

Patricia "Pat" Gentry (U.S. Army Veteran)

WELCOME TO THE NEW ONLINE SHOPPING EXPERIENCE

WWW.DANVADENCHEVROLET.COM

912-925-9393

9393 ABERCORN STREET, SAVANNAH