Former Major Leaguer's Coming to Share Their Faith/Baseball Knowledge

Boys and girls ages 7-12 can receive free tips on the game of baseball and the game of life at the upcoming, free baseball camp at the baseball complex at The Bethesda Home for Boys.

Andy McGaffigan, an eleven year veteran of the Major Leagues, will serve as pitching coach on Saturday, November 8. McGaffigan played for five different teams spanning eleven seasons from 1981 to 1991. He holds a career record of 38 and 33 with a 3.38 earned run average in 363 games pitched.

On the infield will be former Cincinnati Red Wade Rowdon. This will be Rowdon's fifth year at the camp.

The 6th annual Sycamore at The Stadium baseball camp is being held Saturday, November 8 from 8:30 to 1pm and Sunday, November 9 from 1:30 to 5pm. Attendees will receive a camp t-shirt, hat and a bible.

You may register your child by visiting the camp web site, www.sycamore-atthestadium.com or by calling the Sycamore Network church office at 912-925-6389.

Pre-registration is required and space is limited.

SSU Wins Homecoming

Daniel Studdard rushed for two touchdowns to lead Savannah State to a 23-7 homecoming victory over Concordia before 9,217 fans at Wright Stadium. SSU (4-5) took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a Derek Williams 27 yard field goal. The Tigers extended their lead to 6-0 in the second quarter on a 26 yard Williams filed goal. With 9:08 left in the third quarter, Concordia (5-5) went ahead 7-6 on a seven-yard run by A. J. Ward. SSU responded with 17 unanswered points to finish the contest. Williams kicked a 24 yard field goal early in the fourth to put SSU back ahead 9-7. With 5:25 left, Studdard scored on a three-yard run and added another three-yard run with 1:48 remaining. Williams converted both extra points. Justin Babb led SSU in rushing with a career-high 164 yards. JaCorey Kilcrease completed 9-of-11 passes for 58 yards and DeLeon Hollinger caught six balls for 67 yards. Calvin Leonard had nine tackles and an interception for the defense. SSU will play Edward Waters on November 8 in St. Mary's Georgia at 5:00 p.m.

NC Central Tops Edward Waters

Michael Johnson threw three touchdown passes to help lead North Carolina Central to a 34-14 homecoming win against Edward Waters before 11,625 fans. Johnson was 9 of 21 for 181 yards with three touchdowns and four interceptions for the Eagles (2-6). Johnson connected with Will Scott on touchdowns of 32 and 36 yards in the opening quarter, but EWC's Cesary Wilborn hit Horace Scott on a 15-yard pass that cut the Eagles' lead to 14-7 at the half. After David Ingram's 32-yard interception return made it 21-7, Wilborn's 1-yard touchdown run pulled the Tigers (2-7) within a touchdown. Johnson's second 32-yard touchdown pass to Scott put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter.

2008 Pioneer Bowl Suspended

The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) and the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) have suspended the Pioneer Bowl for 2008. The game was scheduled to take place in Columbia, SC on December 6, 2008 at Charlie W. Johnson stadium. The Pioneer Bowl will resume in 2009 at a date and time to be determined. The SIAC Council of Presidents and Athletic Directors' Committee in conjunction with CIAA Board of Directors Leon Kerry have decided to focus their efforts toward the future and suspend the game for 2008. The Bowl Game features the Champion of the SIAC and the CIAA and began in 1997. The SIAC leads the series between the two conferences 8-2.

Rams Pound FVSU

Kisan Flakes threw four touchdown passes as Albany State defeated Fort Valley State 31-7 in the Fountain City Classic played before 22,331 in Columbus, Georgia. ASU (6-3) led 14-0

"I am the same man I have always been at age 83," Lang said. "Age is a state of mind, so I stay positive and stay active and this will extend my life," he continued.

James Lang... Continued from page 13

Lang notes the changes and adjustments that have been made in radio in the last 30 years. He believes that the personal touch has been lost. His personal message to the up and coming radio announcers, "Continue to read as much as you can, have a voice in government. Good luck and may God continue to bless all of you." Lang is in the process of writing his biography. He said its about the beginning of his life and being a radio announcer in the south, the struggles and the success. Hopefully this will enlighten someone who wants to pursue a career as an announcer.

On Saturday, December 11, 2004 Lang was inducted into The Savannah Tribune and The Savannah Herald newspapers Gospel Hall of Fame, this was a well deserved honor.
