Rhythm In Blue: US Air Force Reserve Jazz Combo Honoring Our Soldiers: Past and Present

US Air Force Reserve Jazz Combo will present a free concert, Rhythm In Blue at the Jewish Educational Alliance (5111 Abercorn) on Thursday, November 13th at 1:30 p.m. as part of a community celebration of the U.S. Armed Forces and to honor our country's Veterans. Don't miss it!

The afternoon of jazz is free and open to the public and is being sponsored by the Jewish Educational Alliance, Coastal Jazz Association of Savannah and MorningStar Cultural Arts.

US Air Force Reserve Jazz Combo performs a wide variety of jazz music from traditional classics to contemporary, sizzling Latin to Motown. This versatile group has entertained tens-of-thousands of audiences at numerous festivals, schools, and military events throughout the Southeast region. Wherever they perform, they are met with excitement and enthusiasm! The concert features an afternoon of music which honors our soldiers, past and present.

The Band of the U.S. Air Force Reserve is one of the finest musical organizations in the Southeastern United States. The band travels in excess of 100,000 miles per year performing more than 500 concerts extensively throughout their primary geographic area of Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi. The band has also performed in many overseas locations to include Russia, Italy, Turkey, Portugal, Antigua, Panama, Germany, Australia and the Caribbean.

Sentient Bean to Host "Sounds of Civil Rights" Music Series

Sentient Bean to Host "Sounds of Civil Rights" Music Series as part of partnership with the Telfair's "Freedom's March" exhibit

At 8:00 pm on the first three Fridays in November, Juanita Tucker and members of The Spitfire Poetry Group along with special guests each night, will be performing a night of music about the struggle for civil rights in America. The event will be an interactive, historic tour through song.

Spoken word dialogue will address the importance of music as a tool for education, a secret language and, of course, inspiration and celebration. A variety of music will be performed including spirituals, freedom songs, and message songs.

All three events are free and open to the public. Bring your ears and hopefully your voice.

The Sentient Bean is located at 13 E. Park Avenue, across the street from the tennis courts. The events will be on the 7th, 14th, and 21st of November, but not on the 28th.
