Brownsville Baptist to hold Harvest Day Celebration

It is harvest time at Brownsville! The Lord has truly blessed the Brownsville Family and we are celebrating His wonderful works!

We are pleased to invite our friends to join our celebration on Sunday, November 16th at 4:00 p.m. Our special guests will be St. Luke Baptist Church with the Reverend Lexcie Aiken. Thank you in advance for helping to make this celebration a special one for all of us. We look forward to seeing you as we join together to lift up the matchless name of Jesus and give God all the glory, honor and praise that he so richly deserves. A good time is expected to be had by all. Refreshments will be served.

A New Beginning for First Pilgrim Missionary Baptist

This is a year of new beginnings and after major trials (literally) and tribulations our God has brought us out and into our new beginning. For years we have been saying that the best is yet to come, that time is now. Isaiah 43:19 states "Behold I do a new thing, Now it shall spring forth....." It is with great joy that we announce to you that God has given us a new vision and empowered us with a new name. No longer are we First Pilgrim Missionary Baptist Church. We are now Morning Glory Temple of Deliverance. God has blessed us in immeasurable ways and to Him alone be all the glory! We have decided as a ministry to focus on building up our internal operations, ministries, and community outreach programs for the next year. We will not be having
