Uganda Tribe Embraces the Hebrew Tradition:
Join Mickve Israel as we welcome Israel Sirri, Chairperson of the Abayudaya's Jewish Community in Uganda on Sunday, November 30, 2008 at 5:00 PM

Mr. Sirri will present an upbeat multimedia program sharing the latest news of the joint Abayudaya/Kulunu sustainable development mitzvah projects Working to help this struggling African Jewish community. He also will discuss how the crisis in Kenya is adversely affecting these projects in Uganda. You will learn how the Abayudaya and Kulunu are taking a leadership role in bringing diverse tribal and religious communities together through the schools and through the "Delicious Peace" Mirembe Kawomera fair trade organic coffee project, involving more than 750 farmers of all three faiths working together (Christian, Jewish and Muslim).

A construction engineer by profession, Israel Sirri has helped design and has directly supervised the many public works projects the community has completed with the Kulunu's help. These include the installation of water catchment tanks in every village and the first running water well in the community; construction of new classrooms, dormitories, latrines, a guesthouse, a science lab and working showers for the schools as well as bringing the first electricity to the main village center at Nabagoye Hill.

Mr. Sirri's trip is sponsored by Kulunu, an organization that reflects the community of interests of individuals of varied backgrounds and religious practices dedicated to finding and assisting lost and dispersed remnants of the Jewish people.

There is no charge for this event to be held at Congregation Mickve Israel located on Bull Street at Monterey Square in the historic district. Please RSVP no later than noon on Wednesday, 11/26 to Debbie (912-233-1547 ext. 22 or downen@mickveisrael.org).

Savannah Children's Choir Presents Winter Memories, Their Annual Holiday Concert

Join the Savannah Children's Choir on Sunday, December 7 at 3 p.m. at the historic Lucas Theater to enjoy "Winter Memories," the choir's annual holiday concert.

The choir will explore the sounds of the season, interspersed with comments from community leaders as they share meaningful memories from their childhood.

Singing songs in five languages, the concert features secular and sacred songs from a variety of traditions and cultures.

Joining the Savannah Children's Choir and the Savannah Children's Preparatory Choir will be the SCC Satellite Choir from the Risers Academy, as well as a host of professional instrumental musicians.

Tickets are available at the SCAD box office on Broughton Street, or online at www.scadboxoffice.com <<http://www.scadboxoffice.com>>. For more information, go to www.savannahchoir.org <<http://www.savannahchoir.org>> or call (912) 228-4758.
