

Up on the Rooftop with E93's Kenya Cabine and Lil G

Kenya Cabine

E93, Savannah's Hip Hop and R&B Leader personalities Kenya Cabine, & Lil G will sit from 6am to 10pm on the rooftop of the Wesley Community Center on November 25, 2008, located at 1601 Drayton Street, during which time they will invite listeners and businesses to make pledges of food and monetary donations to help support families in need. E93 will bring awareness to the centers needs during this time of the year.

Wesley Community Center, a non-profit agency, provides a variety of services in Chatham County. Wesley Community Centers of Savannah's mission is to promote the economic, educational and spiritual growth of women, children and youth and programs are designed to foster independence and self esteem. Wesley Community Centers is also a certified homeless indirect-service provider through the Chatham Savannah Authority for the Homeless.

E93, a Cumulus Broadcasting station, is encouraging listeners to donate goods to help support this worthwhile cause. For more information, please contact Gil A. Jones Jr. at 961-9000 ext. 7100.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED! Eleventh Annual Day of Great Thanksgiving, November 22

Old Savannah City Mission, Savannah's Five Star Gospel Rescue Mission, 2414 Bull Street, Savannah, (912) 232-1979 www.oscm.org needs volunteers throughout the week. If you want to make a difference, please call Dana (232-1979) or email her (dana@oscm.org) or just drop by the Mission. We will put you to work.

For the third consecutive year, Wiley McCrary, owner of Wiley's Championship BBQ and winner of multi-state awards is in the lead in preparation of 250 turkeys; however, he is not alone. Our friends Blowing Smoke BBQ, Papa's BBQ and Brinson Clements are on board to help with the food preparation.

For many people the delicious dinner served on Saturday will be their only Thanksgiving dinner. The Mission has already been assisting a significant increase in people. People are looking for help, especially for food. Our economic difficulties are driving more people to the Mission and to our Day of Great Thanksgiving.

On Saturday, November 22 from 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. delicious smoked turkey Thanksgiving dinners will be served free of charge to our community's neediest citizens. Too often in Savannah we live "parallel" lives. People pass on the street, but never meet. It is meeting time this Saturday. Thousands of people, many of them volunteers others are friends and neighbors, aka homeless will have their first face to face encounter.

Teams of volunteers will fan out across the area to deliver 1,200 meals to seniors and those with special needs who are unable to come to Forsyth Park.

This event mirrors much of what we imagine of the First Thanksgiving. Native Americans who had helped Pilgrims survive through difficult times joined them at a table filled with the bountiful provisions of God. In a genuine spirit of unity they enjoyed a meal together and gave thanks to God. This event is open to the community. There is a place at the Thanksgiving table for everyone...those who help and those who need help. For the first time many volunteers will look into the pain-filled eyes of the less fortunate.

Again, VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED! Call (912) 232-1979, ext. 200 or email Dana at dana@oscm.org. If you wish, just drop in the Mission. There's much work to be done.

located 622 East 37th Street. The question that we must answer it seems as a faith community is, do we want to feel good about our ministry, or do we want to do the will of God. If we want to do the will of God we have a life and commands of Jesus of Nazareth. Let us then follow the admonition of Jesus to love your enemies, pray for those who persecute you, feed the hunger, clothe the naked, visit those in prison and care for widows and orphans," not as ends, but as a means of demonstrating God's love for the whole person in order that people might seek Him and live.
