

SOCIAL AND COMMUNITY NEWS

Greater Gaine holds Women's Day Celebration

The Women's Day Committee along with our pastor, the Reverend Bernard Clarke, officers and members of Greater Gains Chapel A.M.E. Church, 1006 May Street, cordially invite you to our Women's Day Celebration on Sunday, November 30, 2008, 11:00 A.M. Our guest preacher for this occasion is Evangelist Janice Scott of the Hutchinson Longstreet Missionary Baptist Church in Stilson, Georgia. Music will be provided by the Chapelettes Gospel Chorus and a light repast will be served. Please join us to hear this powerful woman of God speak to us on how God is "Empowering Women to Serve." Rev. Bernard Clarke, Pastor

"Those Singing Pastors" Inaugural fund raising event for Savannah's West Broad

On November 30, 2008, at 5 pm, West Broad Street YMCA at 1110 May St. will be host to "Those Singing Pastors" an inaugural fund raising event for the Y. There is no admission charge and refreshments will be available. Rev. Clarence "Teddy" Williams of First Tabernacle Baptist Church and Pastor Shannon O'Neil Smith Sr. of First Mount Sinai Church have offered a challenge to Savannah area pastors to help raise funds for the West Broad Street YMCA. Pastors are encouraged to support this endeavor with not less than $500 raised from their congregation. Currently there are 8 churches participating and more are expected. Mr. E. Larry McDuffie, local radio host and well known speaker, will be the Master of Ceremonies for the event. "It will be a time of food, fun, and fellowship!", says McDuffie adding, "And best of all it is free to the public!" Awards will be given for the most funds raised by a congregation, best dressed, event attendance, and best singer. "It's really a great cause," states Pastor Smith. "The Y serves so many people in the community. It has had some hard times in the past but it is really coming around," Smith says. It is for the whole family and sure to great fun.

AASU to Hold Auditions for All My Sons

AASU will hold auditions for All My Sons, a production about family conflict, patriotic duty, and personal greed set in the aftermath of World War II. The auditions will be held at 6 p.m., December 9 and 10 in the Black Box Theatre in Jenkins Hall on the AASU campus, 11935 Abercorn Street. Directed by Roger Miller, AASU associate professor of theatre, the cast will include five men, four women and one boy 8 to 10 years old. Audition materials and "sides" are available outside in the Fine Arts Hall and outside the faculty offices in Jenkins Hall. The auditions are open to the public and no acting experience is required.

City Mission's Day of Great Thanksgiving Over the Top

Old Savannah City Mission's 11th Annual Day of Great Thanksgiving was over the top. Not only was the day beautiful and crispy, 5,276 delicious smoked turkey dinners were served to our community's neediest citizens. Volunteers delivered over 1,200 dinners to seniors, shut-ins and folks with special needs. More than 1,000 volunteers helped in the preparation 260 turkeys beginning on Tuesday and culminating in today's event. They willingly gave their time and resources to make a difference. Many of the volunteers were young people who eagerly filled the plates, attended tables, and pull cleanup detail. "Today has been a phenomenal success. So many people came together. The food was wonderful. The music was great. The day was beautiful. And, 5,276 meals were eagerly served. The Mission owes a great debt of gratitude to so many donors, volunteers, churches and businesses. I sincerely believe Savannah is a better place when people come together in gratitude and share a meal. We have so much for which to be thankful." Rev. Jim Lewis

Savannah Children's Choir presents Winter Memories Concert

Members of Savannah Children's Choir.

Join the Savannah Children's Choir and the Savannah Children's Preparatory Choir will be the historic Lucas Theater to enjoy "Winter Memories," the choir's annual holiday concert. Tickets are available at the SCAD box office on Broughton Street, or online at www.scadboxoffice.com or call (912) 228-4758. The choir will explore the sounds of the season, interspersed with comments from community leaders as they share meaningful memories from their childhood. Singing songs in five languages, the concert features secular and sacred songs from a variety of traditions and cultures. Joining the Savannah Children's Choir and the Savannah Children's Preparatory Choir will be the SCC Satellite Choir from the Risers Academy, as well as a host of professional instrumental musicians. Tickets are available at the SCAD box office on Broughton Street, or online at www.scadboxoffice.com or call (912) 228-4758. For more information, go to www.savannahchoir.org or call (912) 228-4758.

Happy Thanksgiving to all our Readers!

General Contractors - M/WBEs - Construction Suppliers

Please Join Us For A Meet and Greet To Discuss

Construction Opportunities

Hosted By
Satori-Winter

Thursday, December 4th, 2008

4:00PM to 8:00PM

Savannah Marriott Riverfront Hotel
100 General McIntosh Blvd.

RSVP by December 1st:
404-965-3318
ljimenez@winter-construction.com

Food and Beverages will be provided.