

Fay and Steele Receive First Two Tickets to NAACP Obama Victory Breakfast Celebration

Dr. Martha Fay and Mrs. Sadie Davis Steele received the first two tickets to the Obama Victory Breakfast Celebration. The ladies are pictured with Dr. Billy Jamison, RMG Museum Board Chairman; Savannah Branch NAACP President Dr. Prince Jackson; and other members of the NAACP. "These two ladies are among the oldest Civil Rights Warriors from our community. They laid everything on the line for what they believed in," said Dr. Jackson. Mrs. Steele is a retired educator and Dr. Martha Fay is a retired Geneticist.

The Savannah Branch NAACP and the Ralph Mark Gilbert Civil Rights Museum will present an Obama

Victory Celebration Breakfast at the new annex of the Civil Rights Museum, 460 Martin Luther King Boulevard (Alice Street Entrance), 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 13, 2008.

Clothes Give-away

A Clothes Give-away will be held on Friday, December 12th from 3 p.m.-6 p.m. and Saturday, December 13th from 9 a.m.-2 p.m. in The Forum (formerly the Family Life Center) at The Temple of Glory Community Church located at 1105 Stiles Avenue. Please join us to help serve those in our community. Elder Matthew Gunn, ministry leader.

St. John Baptist holds "Traditional" Candlelight Communion Service

Rev. George P. Lee, III and the St. John Baptist Church family extend a warm invitation to the Savannah community and surrounding counties to attend their "Traditional" Candlelight Communion Service on Sunday, December 21, 2008 at 5 p.m. The theme for the occasion is "Jesus, The Light of the World" - St. John 8:12.

Rev. George P. Lee, III

This traditional consecrated service will feature seasonal music, inspirational anthems, and sacred hymns performed by The Mighty Fortress Candlelight Mass Choir, along with a consortium of instruments played by some of the city's finest musicians. "Silent Night," "Joy to the World," and "Jesus, The Light of the World" are just a few seasonal selections that will be performed for your listening pleasure. In addition, the Holy Communion will be served as a last sacrament for the "Year of New Beginnings" - two thousand and eight.

St. John Baptist Church "The Mighty Fortress" is located in historic Savannah,

Georgia at 522 Hartridge Street (between East Broad and Price Streets). Additional parking and shuttle service to and from East Broad Elementary School will be available, as well as transportation for the handicapped.

For additional information, please call 912-232-8507 or 877-432-8507.

Concetta Hassan, owners of Georgetown Veterinary Hospital, Inc.

It was always Dr. Hassan's intention to own her own clinic and in 2006 with the assistance of an SBA 504 loan and SBAC Microloan she and her mother opened Georgetown Veterinary Hospital. The SBA 504 loan allowed them to construct a 3,750 square foot veterinary facility in the Georgetown section of Savannah at 21 Brasseler Boulevard. Georgetown's revenue grew by 50% from 2006 to 2007 and the Hassans anticipate a banner year ending for 2008.
