In accepting the award for the chapter, President Van R. Johnson, II said, "This award is the result of the effort of many dedicated and committed public servants that live and work everyday in the greater Savannah community - when originally faced with the challenge of growing a chapter, we asked ourselves the simple question, "Is there anything too hard for the Lord?"

The mission of the

NFBPA is embodied in the organization's commitment to strengthen the position of African Americans within the field of public administration; to increase the number of African Americans appointed to executive positions in public service organizations; and, to groom and prepare younger, aspiring administrators for senior public management posts in the years ahead.

The Savannah

Metropolitan Chapter is the fastest growing chapter in the nation, with members in Chatham, Liberty, Long, Glynn counties and in the low country of South Carolina.
