

To All The Great Fathers ...see page 2 for Father's Day Tributes
HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

"GEORGIA'S BEST WEEKLY"

The Savannah Tribune

PRSR STD
 U.S. POSTAGE
 PAID
 Savannah, GA
 Permit No. 923

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

Week of June 17, 2009 - June 23, 2009 • Vol. 37 No. 17 • www.savannahtribune.com • 912-233-6128 • Fax: 912-233-6140

Hunstein to Replace Sears as Chief Justice

Carol Hunstein

Presiding Justice Carol W. Hunstein has been unanimously elected as the new Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Georgia.

She will assume the position July 1, 2009, succeeding Chief Justice Leah Ward Sears, who is stepping down from the Court June 30.

The Court has also unanimously elected Justice George H. Carley to become the new Presiding Justice.

Former Gov. Zell Miller - who appointed both Justices to the Supreme Court - will swear them into their new positions in a ceremony in the state Supreme Court courtroom on July 1.

The state's Chief Justice presides over Georgia's judicial branch, just as the governor heads the executive branch of government, and House and Senate leaders lead the legislative branch. The Presiding Justice serves in her absence. The Chief Justice is the main spokesperson for the Court, as well as for the entire judiciary. She presides over oral arguments and runs the meetings in which the Court makes its decisions, although she has only one vote as does each of the Justices.

Justice Hunstein was a DeKalb County Superior Court Judge when Gov. Miller tapped her in 1992 to become the second woman in history to serve on Georgia's Supreme Court. She was the first woman to serve as President of the Council of Superior Court Judges.

Savannah Area Chamber holds Annual Awards Banquet

Winners of the Chamber Small Business Awards include (L-R): Joe Driggers, Paul Kennedy, Jay Marshlick, and Tom Campbell.

On Tuesday, June 10, the Savannah Area Chamber held its 23rd Annual Awards Banquet.

Greener Grass Hair Color and Designs, Inc. was named "Small Business of the Year" by the Savannah Area Chamber of Commerce.

Other winners included Tom Campbell, representative of Health Insurance Services, Inc., who received the "Helen V. Head Small Business Advocate of the Year Award;" Paul Kennedy named "Hospitality Small Business of the Year;" and In the Know Marketing &

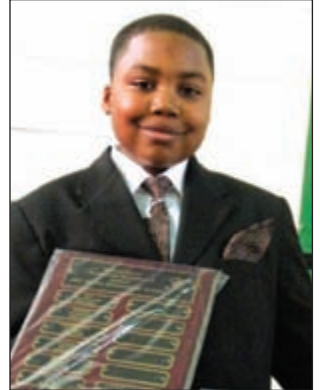

Public Relations, owned by Joe Driggers, chosen "Entrepreneur of the Year."

Tom Campbell is the past president of the Small Business Chamber and an active member of the Savannah Area Chamber.

Entrepreneur of the Year Joe Driggers launched his company in December 2007, after serving as the marketing director and acting general manager of The Savannah Mall. At the same time, he also joined Goodwill Industries of the Coastal Empire as its director of marketing and development, a position he still holds.

Butler holds Bridging Ceremony

Kelton King

Chelsea Phelps

Sakerra Love

On Friday, June 12, Butler Elementary School held its annual Bridging Ceremony, a celebration of the transition of students from elementary to middle school. Among the highlights of the ceremony was an enriching and engaging speech delivered by Juanita Adams, a retired Savannah State University instructor. Butler's Chorus gave an entertaining rendition of "You Gotta Be".

Special awards were presented to Kelton King and Chelsea Phelps. Kelton received the Academic Excellence Award, presented by Mrs. Emma Preer, and Chelsea received the Outstanding Citizenship Award presented by Albertha Collier.

All students received Certificates of Participation in recognition of their success and hard work.

Former West Savannah Family Reflects at Fellwood Ribbon Cutting

Pictured are former West Savannah residents :Front: James Wesley Davis 2nd row: (left to right) Ella Wesley Mobley, Earline Wesley Davis, Lillian Wesley Lee, Angela Lee Back: Robert D. Davis, III

The ribbon cutting for Phase I and the groundbreaking for Phase II of Sustainable Fellwood was held Thursday, May 28 at the Sustainable Fellwood site off Bay Street.

Phase II will include another 110 affordable housing units, and single family homes.

Earline Wesley Davis, a former West Savannah resident reflected, "I could not have imagined when I started first grade and walked by and through Fellwood Homes on my way to Moses Jackson Elementary School that I would be director of the Housing Authority of Savannah, and that the Housing authority would be playing a major role in the transformation of West Savannah. It is in the spirit of partnership that this

See Fellwood, page 8

What's so great about Carver State Bank? It's the people!

www.carverstatebank.com

Mattie Bing
7110 Skidaway Road

Sharice Wilson
701 M. L. King, Jr. Blvd.