

SOCIAL AND COMMUNITY NEWS

Superintendent Recognizes Students During Board Meeting

The Savannah-Chatham County Public School System will recognize two students at this month's board meeting for the Superintendent's Student of the Month.

Teaysia Biggins, a seventh grader at Hubert Middle school has been selected as SSOM for September. William Erbele, a senior at Herschel V. Jenkins High School has been named as SSOM for October. Both students were chosen for their leadership skills and academic achievement.

An avid reader, Teaysia Biggins is reported by teacher Wanda Dixon, as excellent peer tutor, Teaysia Biggins has a 93.5 GPA. When asked what motivates her to achieve academic success Teaysia said, "I approach every task with confidence. I'm a good student because I give everything my best effort. Even when I am not successful, I never give up. Failure is not an option for me. I have no choice but to achieve all of my goals because I won't stop until every goal is achieved."

William Erbele is described by his teacher Sally Scott as a scholar-athlete. She says he is "smart, hard-working, humble and teachable." She also describes him as "a strong motivator of both class and team mates." William is a member of the National Honor Society and a Governors Honors nominee. He has achieved numerous academic awards and placements throughout high school. While achiev-

Teaysia Biggins

William Erbele

the top reader in her class. She completed more than 50 % of the year's reading requirement by the second month of school. Dixon states, "She is determined to excel in every area of her life." Also described as an ing a 97.0 GPA he was recently named Savannah Morning News Player of the Week. He has participated in numerous community projects including Operation Christmas Child and feeding families at the Ronald McDonald House. When asked what motivates him to succeed William says, "I just enjoy having the opportunity to learn." William plans to attend college and play collegiate football.

The Superintendent's Student of the Month program recognizes individual students at the monthly board meetings who have excelled in the area of academics, leadership, and community service. Teaysia Biggins and William Erbele were recognized by Dr. Lockamy and presented with an award plaque and $100 savings bond at the regular board meeting on Wednesday, November 4.

Sullivan Group Hosts Food Drive for America's Second Harvest

The Sullivan Group will hold a food drive starting today through November 20 with all donations going to America's Second Harvest of Coastal Georgia.

The staff at The Sullivan Group is always looking for ways to help charities. We know it's the little things that make a big difference to others," said Eileen Nuzzo, Executive Administrator at The Sullivan Group.

For every three items a person donates, their name will be entered into a drawing and could win one of two prizes.

Four winners will receive their choice of: 4-pack of tickets to Regal Cinemas or 1 year VIP card from Savannahmenu.

There is no limit to the amount of donations a person can make and no limit to the number of times an individual can be entered in the drawing.

Donated items will be accepted at The Sullivan Group's main office, 37 West Fairmont Avenue, Building 100 in Savannah. South Georgia clients of The Sullivan Group can also donate directly to America's Second Harvest locations in Alma and Brunswick.

For any additional questions call Eileen Nuzzo at 912-961-8882.

The Sullivan Group is a Human Resources Outsourcing (HRO) company focused on supporting small and medium-sized businesses (SMBs).

Serving hundreds of small businesses in Georgia and South Carolina, The Sullivan Group provides each customer with the critical support and expert resources needed for a wide range of HR challenges including employee benefits, payroll, compliance tactics, staffing and workers compensation insurance.

Savannah Children's Choir to hold Annual Winter Concert

On Sunday, November 15 at 3 p.m. the Savannah Children's Choir will hold their annual Winter Concert, titled "How Can I Keep From Singing?" at First Presbyterian Church, 520 Washington Avenue.

Tickets, available at the door, are $10 for adults, and $5 for students.

The choir, under the artistic direction of Roger Moss, is joined this year by associate conductor Timothy Hall along with accompanist Anne Beetem Acker.

This year, the choir features three groups, the Preparatory Choir, the Senior Choir, and the Consort. This newly formed ensemble of the Senior Choir is working on holiday and wedding music, and is available to sing at outside events. All three groups will perform at the Winter Concert.

The choir is Savannah's only non-profit community choir for children in 2nd through 8th grades.

Members must maintain a "B" average in each school subject to remain in good standing, and free tutoring is provided by community volunteers to any child requesting help.

In addition to weekly musical instruction throughout the year, the choir provides an annual Artist-in-Residence program in the spring, bringing in top young artists to work with choir members and local school children, and an annual Summer Choral Camp the last two weeks of July.

The camp is open to the public, and serves as the audition into the choir.

For more information, go to www.savannahchoir.org, or call (912) 412-2833.

SOLID

SEES THE BEAUTY IN

SMALL STEPS

It's amazing what you can accomplish when you focus on the details.

Discover for yourself how paying attention to the details can really pay off when it comes to your money. Let SunTrust help. With our simple and convenient online tools, you can stay on top of your money today and in the future. We even make saving easy. To find out how you can get started, visit suntrust.com/solid.

To Ensure Triumph...
It Takes Us All!