Retirement Program for Rev. James Carver Shipman

Rev. James Shipman

The officers and members of the Historic Bolton Street Missionary Baptist Church have announced the retirement of their Pastor The Reverend James Carver Shipman. Reverend Shipman has been the pastor of the Historic Church for twenty seven (27) years.

The retirement program will be held at the Church 821 Martin Luther King Blvd. on November 15, 3.00 pm.

The Reverend Matthew Southall Brown Sr., Pastor Emeritus of the St John Baptist Church (The Mighty Fortress), and Moderator of The Berean Baptist Association, will be the Messenger.

The entire Savannah community is invited.

Bethlehem to hold Deaconess Consecration

The Pastor, Officers and members of Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church extend a cordial invitation to the entire community to share in the Consecration Service for our prospective Deaconesses.

These six women were chosen for this Servant Ministry and after much training, prayer and preparation they will be set apart during the worship service.

They accepted this important call to service and commitment and have agreed to use their spiritual gifts to be "succourers of many".

The service takes place at the church on November 22, 2009 at 4p.m. and the Consecration Message will be delivered by Sis. Florrie

B. Scriven, President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Berean Missionary Baptist Association.

Sister Scriven is an ardent member of First Nazareth Missionary Baptist Church where Rev. Guy Malcolm Hodge is Pastor.

Card of Thanks

On behalf of Elder Willie Ferrell, Pastor and First Lady Margaret Ferrell, Chairpersons of the 50th Annual General Assembly of the Royal Church of Christ and the Royal Church family we would like to take this opportunity to thank our well wishers, friends, churches, pastors, families, Chatham County, and Savannah near and far for making our 50th Annual Assembly a successful and wonderful event. "Pentecost has definitely come. This is the Year of Jubilee." We would also like to thank those persons who orchestrated our Banquet's Gala Celebration, the staff, Minister Flowers who served as our toastmaster, and everyone who made that affair tremendously special and enjoyable. We have a saying at the Royal Church of Christ: "Love is shown with work clothes on." Special thanks to the Savannah Tribune for publicizing our event. We love you, and may God's blessings continue to overtake you is our prayer.
