

Girl Scouts Accepting Nominations for Women of Distinction

The Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia are pleased to announce that our 2011 Women of Distinction nominations are now open.

Nominees are area women who, through their service to others and their community, have set an example of excellence for girls in the southeast Georgia region of the Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia.

The Women of Distinction recognition pays tribute to women leaders who have demonstrated extraordinary accomplishments as leaders in their fields, innovators of unique programs and services, and as prime examples of lifelong commitments to opportunities for women and girls everywhere.

The selected honorees will be presented at the third annual Women of Distinction Luncheon on March 4, 2011 at the Morris Center, Trustees Garden, Savannah.

Nomination forms may be obtained from the Girl Scout website at www.gshg.org.

S.P.A.C.E. Visual Arts Classes Now Registering

Savannah's Place for Art, Culture and Education (S.P.A.C.E.) is now registering students for its fall visual arts classes and workshops. Day and evening sessions are offered for children, teens and adults in all skill levels.

Sessions begin Sept. 20 & October 4 and are held at the Department of Cultural Affairs' S.P.A.C.E. studios, located at 9 W. Henry St.

Four, six and eight week classes are available, as well as one-day workshops. Fall visual arts sessions include ceramics, fibers, metal-smithing, stained glass and painting. New offerings in jewelry & metalsmithing include courses in chainmaking, custom jewelry mechanisms, clay jewelry, metals & glass, and an open studio.

Class fees include instruction, use of studio space, use of equipment and all materials and tools required. Space is limited and advance registration is encouraged.

Registration forms are available online at www.savannahga.gov/arts <<http://www.savannahga.gov/arts>> or by calling (912) 651-6783.

Tigers To Mix Experience With Youth

The Savannah State football team returns 15 starters for the 2010 season but will also rely on youth. Three freshmen could be in the starting lineup when the Tigers open the season at Georgia Southern on September 4 and ten more are listed as top reserves.

Despite giving up 25 sacks in 2009, the strength of the offense will lie with the return of four starters to the offensive line. Lenworth McKenzie, Dan Johnson, Jared Brunson and Demetrius Edwards are set to return and will be joined by sophomore Jonathan Clowers (6-6, 290) who will line up at left tackle. AJ DeFilippis played in seven games and passed for 425 yards and three touchdowns a year ago and will line up at quarterback.

After running for 804 yards last season Justin Babb will be on the hunt to reach the 1,000 mark but he is being pushed by freshman Sheldon Barnes (5-11, 215). Alakan Thomas is one of the few wide receivers with experience but newcomers

Walter Moore

Brian Lackey (6-4, 195), Josh Coleman (5-9, 170) and Dylan Cook (6-2, 185) have been impressive in the pre-season.

LaDarren Redfield and Channing Welch returns to anchor the interior defensive line. junior college transfer Reginald Givens and sophomore Xavier Lewis (6-3, 265) will hold down the defensive end positions.

The linebackers appear solid with the return of Sadrak Jean-Baptiste (50 tackles), Nate Clay and J. Vince Cochran (51 tackles). Freshman Leland Russell (5-10, 231) is also pushing for playing time. Darren Hunter and Chris Asbury (54 tackles) have locked down the safety spots while Justin Cooper (6-2, 175) and junior Matthew Smith have earned the starting nods on the corners.

Derek Williams returns for his junior year and will once again handle the punting and kicking chores. The Toronto, Canada native has not missed an extra point since September 2008. Local products Simon Heyward (Beach High) and Antonio Proctor (Memorial Day) will handle the punt returns and kick returns respectively. Taylor Thompson (Memorial) will be the long snapper and backup quarterback Antonio Bostic will be the holder.

SSU will have a challenging schedule with nine consecutive games on the road. Old rivals Fort Valley State and Albany State are on the schedule as well and upstart Georgia State.

The Tigers will play FVSU in Macon's Music City Classic and will face Albany State in Waycross as part of the Rumble in the Swamp Classic.

Welch, Edwards, Babb and Redfield have been selected as team captains for the 2010 season.

far gathered to celebrate this historical moment of the Beginning of a Divine Completion. The day was filled with the presence of God as they gave the Lord their Worship and exuberant Praise because He alone deserves all the glory and honor. Make no mistake that this accomplishment was not made over night, but with years of much prayer, fasting, organizing, giving, even trials and some tears, but they held on to God's Word, trusting Him that He would keep His promise. With a small amount of people God has proven to them that there is nothing too hard for Him to do by faith.

So the Everlasting Life

Christian Church family knows that only our great God could do that which seemed to be impossible. For He alone is able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all we could ask or think according to the power that worketh in us. Therefore to God be the Glory for the great things He has done!!!!
